TCG Lifesciences collaborates with JSW Lifesciences in the area of CNS

TCG Lifesciences Limited (TCGLS) has announced that it has entered into a strategic agreement with JSW Lifesciences (JSW), a full services EU based CRO, to strengthen its R&D offerings in the area of Central Nervous System (CNS). This agreement will enable TCGLS and JSW to offer specialized preclinical and early clinical development services in the neuroscience domain to their combined customer base.

Mr. Swapan Bhattacharya, Managing Director, TCGLS said about the deal, "TCGLS is pleased to partner with JSW to advance its expertise in the area of CNS and deliver innovative preclinical and early clinical development R&D solutions. This collaboration will add a new dimension to TCGLSs' present offerings in the integrated drug discovery domain."

Dr. Manfred Windisch, CEO, JSW Lifesciences, said, "Partnering with TCGLS gives us the opportunity to take advantage of 'India benefit' and work closely for mutual growth. Most important for us is the outstanding quality and the expertise of our partner. We are confident that this strategic tie-up will be highly beneficial to both. "
